

CALL TO STUDENT FILMMAKERS:

The Grand Foundation, supporting the Grand Theater Center for the Arts in Tracy, is announcing its 2018 Student Film Festival to be held on March 17, 2018. This Student Film Festival is designed to inspire you, the young filmmaker, and give you an attainable venue in which to have your short film live-screened by a live audience and juried. Monetary prizes totaling $3,250 will be awarded. The final deadline for film submissions is January 5, 2018. For submission information go to grandfoundation.org/events/film.

The Student Film Festival will encompass three Juried Divisions: the college, the high school and the high school immersive art school divisions. Within each Division there will be different genres of film, which include Indie, Experimental, Animation, Documentary and Political/Cause, Narrative, P.S. A. and others.

Film submissions from all divisions will be screened and juried by impartial experts in digital/film media. There will be a First, Second, and Third Place Student Film Festival winner chosen from each of the three divisions. The First Place winner (of each division) will be awarded a $1000 prize. The Second Place winner (of each division) will be awarded a $750 prize, and the Third Place winner will be awarded a $500 prize. Additionally, there will be one overall Honorable Mention winner and one Audience Choice Winner. Award laurels and/or participation laurels will be given for all films accepted into the Grand Foundation Student Film Festival.

All accepted films will be live-screened throughout the day to the general public at the Grand Theatre Center for the Arts on March 17. Additionally, we will feature a guest Film-Talk speaker from the TV and film industries, a Jury Panel Discussion with questions from the audience, and the Student Film Festival will end with a Film-Maker Awards Reception where prizes will be awarded.

Submission forms, deadline information, submission rules & guidelines, and legal releases are available on our Grand Foundation website at grandfoundation.org/events/film. All film entries can be submitted through FilmFreeway by going to <https://filmfreeway.com/festival/GrandFoundationStudentFilmFestival>.

We encourage you to share this Grand Foundation Student Film Festival with other student filmmakers so we can have the best film festival possible.
